You could actually go to the top of this article and scratch my name off and write your own name as the author. You will be writing the majority of the contents of this monograph. . . and I believe enjoying it too!

For too long the book of Proverbs has been read only to teach the reader "how to live wisely." However, like the rest of the Bible this approach is to miss its deepest application. The goal of Scripture is so much more than just to teach us right from wrong! God gave His Word to guide us into getting to know Him. Every book of the Bible gives us an additional glimpse into just how He thinks, what He feels, and some of the "whys" behind what we see Him doing.

The book of Proverbs is no exception! Inside of each Proverb is an indescribable treasure! Every proverb enables us to see the invisible God more clearly.

Believing that God Himself is the essence of wisdom, and that every proverb is a statement of wisdom; we could arrive at no other conclusion than the fact that God fulfills every proverb in the Bible. Every proverb is a statement of what God is like in one of His attributes or functions.

HIS CHARACTER

These first proverbs have to do with His character. What is He like? What are some of His attributes and characteristics?

"The king's heart is in the hand of the Lord; he directs it like a watercourse wherever he pleases." Proverbs 21:1

This one is easy. It just states outright what God is like. He is in absolute control. Even over those that we would term "in control" (i.e.kings), God controls.

"By justice a king gives a country stability, but one who is greedy for bribes tears it down." Proverbs 29:4

This one isn't quite as easy. It talks about a man who creates insecurity in his leadership because he is willing to take bribes. The people under his leadership can never be sure that he is going to do the "right thing," since he can be bribed into his decisions.

God is never like that. You will never be able to talk Him out of doing the right thing. You will never be able to manipulate Him with your promises or "bribes." God makes up His own mind, never simply reacts to us, and always brings stability with His justice.

"The wicked man flees though no one pursues, but the righteous are bold as a lion." Proverbs 28:1

Here we find an attribute of God's character that is seldom given any attention. If the righteous are as bold as a lion, how bold must God be?

What is boldness? In what ways is God bold? What would be different in your life if God weren't bold?

Those are some good questions to begin you thinking through for yourself this aspect of God.

Do you now see how to take a proverb and use it to see God more clearly? The remainder of this paper contains other proverbs to help you exercise this new-found skill. After reading the verse(s), jot your own thoughts about what it shows you about God in the blanks below the verse.

"Like a city whose walls are broken down is a man who lacks self-control." Proverbs 25:28

"A patient man has great understanding, but a quick-tempered man displays folly." Proverbs 14:29

"Do not withhold good from those who deserve it, when it is in your power to act." Proverbs 3:27

"The Lord abhors dishonest scales, but accurate weights are his delight." Proverbs 11:1

"A generous man will prosper; he who refreshes others will himself be refreshed." Proverbs 11:25

"A truthful witness gives honest testimony, but a false witness tells lies. Reckless words pierce like a sword, but the tongue of the wise brings healing. Truthful lips endure forever, but a lying tongue lasts only a moment. There is deceit in the hearts of those who plot evil, but joy for those who promote peace."
Proverbs 12:17-20

"He who despises his neighbor sins, but blessed is he who is kind to the needy." Proverbs 14:21

"He who rebukes a man will in the end gain more favor than he who has a flattering tongue. Proverbs 28:23

HIS FRIENDSHIP

The next proverbs deal with the qualities to be found in a good friend. They not only show us the type of friend God is to us, but also help us understand how God defines "a good friend."

It is clear from the rest of the Bible that God does desire to be a good friend to us. What do the following proverbs tell you about the way He will act towards us as a good friend. "Wounds from a friend can be trusted, but an enemy multiplies kisses."
Proverbs 27:6

---

"A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity."
Proverbs 17:17

"for the Lord detests a perverse man but takes the upright into his confidence." Proverbs 3:32

---

HIS FATHERHOOD

God desires to be so much more to us than just a good friend. Often in the Bible, our relationship is spoken in terms of the father-child relationship.

What is God's philosophy of child rearing? If we understood His perspective better, what happens in our lives as He raises us just might make more sense!

What are some of His child rearing principles in the following proverbs? What does He understand to be His parental responsibilities towards us His children?

"A good man leaves an inheritance for his children's children, but a sinner's wealth is stored up for the righteous." Proverbs 13:22

---

---

"He who spares the rod hates his son, but he who loves him is careful to discipline him." Proverbs 13:24

"He who fears the Lord has a secure fortress, and for his children it will be a refuge." Proverbs 14:26

---

"Folly is bound up in the heart of a child, but the rod of discipline will drive it far from him." Proverbs 22:15

"Do not withhold discipline from a child; if you punish him with the rod, he will not die. Punish him with the rod and save his soul from death." Proverbs 23:13,14

"The rod of correction imparts wisdom, but a child left to himself disgraces his mother." Proverbs 29:15
